Our Vision

To create a culture where learning is at the forefront of each day and is valued. We want our pupils to feel challenged each day in an environment where performance is improved and potential is achieved, where success is celebrated and where each person has the right to be an individual with a healthy respect shown at all times.

Our Values

For pupils to Be Kind, Be Thankful and Be Ambitious.

Our Rationale

At Royles Brook Primary we develop children's character through the 'Royles Brook Way' curriculum. In order to build character, we define the behaviours and habits that we expect pupils to demonstrate. We want to support our pupils to grow into adults who are polite, respectful, grateful and who put others before themselves. We believe that as pupils practise these behaviours, over time they become automatic routines that positively shape how they feel about themselves and how other people perceive them. As philosopher Paul Durant states "We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit." (1926)

Our Purpose

Using our 3 Pocket Principles we will ensure that all pupils will be:

- Respectful
- Responsible
- Ready to learn

Feedback

At Royles Brook Primary, pupils are provided with consistent and timely feedback throughout the school day.

Other forms of feedback include and are not limited to:

- Celebration assembly,
- Discussion with parent/carer at the start/end of the school day,
- Telephone call home.

Appendix 1.0

Uniform

There will be an expectation that uniform should be appropriate in accordance with uniform policy. Pupils will be encouraged to wear the correct uniform. As a school we actively seek and help those families who may need any additional support with their child's uniform needs.

Restorative Justice

As a school Royles Brook Primary School takes a restorative approach to resolving conflict and preventing harm. Restorative approaches enable those who have been harmed to convey the impact of the harm to those responsible, and for those responsible to acknowledge this impact and take steps to put it right. It allows pupils and staff to move forward and avoid any repeat of the behaviour.

Equal Opportunities

Royles Brook Primary School provides equal opportunities regardless of gender, disability, sexual orientation, ethnic background, colour, nation of origin, age, transgender status and religion. We strive to promote equality and diversity through the ethos of the school.

Bullying and Harassment

Bullying or harassment of any type will not be tolerated in school. Incidents of bullying or harassment occurring outside of "school such as using social network sites, will be dealt with by school in the appropriate manner. Please see the anti-bullying policy.

Appendix 1.1

Exclusions

Only the Headteacher can exclude a pupil in line with the statutory guidelines recommended by the DFE.

Any fixed term exclusions will be discussed with parents/carers before a formal letter of exclusion is delivered. All Royles Brook Primary School exclusions will require a reintegration meeting with pupils and parents to work together to avoid further exclusions. The decision to exclude will be a balanced account of the incident without prejudice.

Permanent exclusion

Permanent Exclusions must be upheld by governors. The decision to permanently exclude is a very carefully considered decision that follows DFE guidance on this issue.

A decision to exclude a pupil permanently should only be taken:

- In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school's behaviour policy; and where allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the school.

Appendix 1.2

Royles Brook Primary School has appropriate school-wide policies in place that make it clear that sexual harassment, online sexual abuse and sexual violence (including sexualised language) are unacceptable and the school behaviour policy outlines appropriate potential sanctions.

These policies are reflected in the school curriculum, Relationships, Sex and Health Education Policy and procedures, which specifically address sexual harassment, online abuse, sexual violence and issues of consent, ensuring that:

- school staff have appropriate knowledge of part 5 of the 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' statutory guidance all pupils are supported to report concerns about harmful sexual behaviour freely
- all (such) concerns are taken seriously and dealt with swiftly and appropriately and that pupils are confident that this is the case
- comprehensive records of all allegations are kept
- work to prevent sexual harassment, online sexual abuse and sexual violence operates through a culture led, whole school approach that includes an effective behaviour policy, pastoral support and a carefully planned relationships, sex and health education curriculum

Royles Brook Primary School staff will remain alert to factors that increase vulnerability or potential vulnerability such as mental ill health, domestic abuse, children with additional needs, and children from groups at greater risk of exploitation and/or of feeling unable to report abuse (for example, girls and LGBT children).

School staff are aware of the increasing local incidence of multiple combinations of such potentially adverse childhood experiences and the needs this could present.

School staff will also seek to understand and minimise any barriers that could prevent a pupil from making a disclosure, for example communication needs, are identified and addressed.

School staff will assume that sexual harassment, online sexual abuse and sexual violence are happening in and around the school, even when there are no specific reports, and deliver a whole-school approach to address them.

School staff will be regularly trained to:

- have good awareness of the signs that a child is being neglected or abused, as described in 'What to do if you're worried a child is being abused'
- understand how to handle reports of sexual violence and harassment between children, both on and outside school premises (in line with DfE guidance)
- be confident about what to do if a child reports that they have been sexually abused by another child
- ensure that children are taught about safeguarding risks, including online risks
- support pupils to understand what constitutes a healthy relationship (online and offline)

Introduction

At Royles Brook Primary School we develop pupil's character through the 'Royles Brook (RB) Way' curriculum linking to our core values of being kind, being thankful and being ambitious. In order to build character, we define the behaviours and habits that we expect pupils to demonstrate. We want to support our pupils to grow into adults who are polite, respectful, grateful and who put others before themselves. We believe that as pupils practise these behaviours, over time they become automatic routines that positively shape how they feel about themselves and how other people perceive them. As philosopher Paul Durant states "We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit." (1926)

Teaching the curriculum

The curriculum is taught explicitly during the first weeks in Autumn term alongside your traditional National Curriculum subjects. Children should learn the content of the curriculum so that they can recall the information and act upon it. At the start of each term, the 'Royles Brook Way' curriculum is revisited with pupils and will continue to be reinforced throughout the year. As with other curriculum content, this should be taught using explicit teaching based on the ten principles of instruction from Barak Rosenshine including regular quizzing to check and strengthen retention. Teachers will also demonstrate these behaviours and ensure pupils have time to practise these (particularly in the first few days of term). For example, a lining up order should be taught in the classroom but must be reinforced in different locations and times throughout the school day e.g. at lunchtime. It is expected that all pupils will know this content.

Adaptations

While this curriculum is for all pupils it will be applied differently in different year groups depending on pupils' ages and may be applied differently depending on individual pupils' SEND needs. Sensitivity must be applied at all times when teaching the curriculum. This will be dependent on our teacher's professional discretion.

Curriculum Content

Curriculum content to be covered in depth in Autumn Term 1 and revisited throughout the year

Behaviour

Know that there are three behaviour principles in school known as the pocket principles. These are to

- be respectful,
- be responsible,
- be ready to learn.

Know the following examples of these three principles –

Be Respectful	Be Responsible	Be Ready to Learn
Say please, thank you and you're welcome Hold doors open for adults Talk kindly to all members of Royles Brook Primary Say good morning/ afternoon to adults and peers	Completing homework on time Remembering to bring equipment to school Tidying up your own workspace and the classroom Accepting responsibility if you make a mistake and accepting the consequence	Sitting still on the carpet or a chair Always listen to the teacher Giving the teacher 100% of your attention Giving 100% effort on all tasks given Being in the right place at the right time

Respect and Responsibility

Know that if you respect someone, you have a good opinion of their character or ideas.

Know that being responsible means being able to be trusted to do the right things that are expected of you at all times.

Know that we walk around school using the 'Royles Brook Walking'

Know that Royles Brook Walking means -

- facing forwards,
- walking at a slow and steady pace,
- in a straight line,
- with hands at the side,

- without talking.

Know that we use Royles Brook Walking to keep everyone safe in school and to make sure the learning of other pupils is not disrupted as pupils move around school.

Know that pupils who do not follow the Royles Brook Walking will have a consequence for this.

Know that we use 'Royles Brook Listening' in class and around school. This means that we -

- face the teacher,
- listen to our teacher at all times,
- never interrupt,
- track the speaker.

Know that we all do Royles Brook Listening to ensure everybody is able to learn without distractions.

Know that pupils who do not follow the Royles Brook Listening will have a consequence for this.

Manners

Know that you should always say 'please' when you are asking for something.

Know that you should always say 'thank you' when you receive something or someone does something nice for you.

Know that you should always say 'you're welcome' when someone thanks you for something.

Know that you should let any waiting adults through a doorway before walking through yourself.

Know that you should say 'good morning/afternoon' to adults if spoken to.

Know that it is important to show 'gratitude' to others by thanking people for what they have done for you.

Playtime Behaviour

Know that you must walk from your classroom to the playground using Royles Brook Walking.

Know that you must play safely without hurting anyone.

Know that we do not 'play fight' because we may hurt someone by accident.

Know that you must be kind, by including people in your games and sharing equipment.

Know that someone who is kind behaves in a gentle, caring and helpful way towards other people.

Know that, when called, you must line up in your lining up order quickly and carefully.

Classroom routines

Know the order that you always line up in.

Know who you stand in front of and who is behind you.

Know that you should line up without leaning against the walls while moving around school.

Know the routine for entering the classroom and getting ready to work.

Know where you sit in class during lessons.

Know the routine for handing out exercise books in the classroom.

Know where to hang up your coat in the classroom.

Know to get equipment out ready for the lesson and to look after it.

Know how to put your hand up silently to answer a question or participate in discussion.

Know that it is important to speak clearly in class when sharing answers so that everyone can hear.

Know that answers should usually be given in full sentences e.g. Who was Christopher Columbus? Christopher Columbus was a famous explorer.

Lunchtime

Know where you line up for lunchtime when you are called.

Know where you sit in the dinner hall during lunchtime.

Know that you should use a quiet voice in the dinner hall.

Know that you should try to use a knife and fork correctly.

Know that you should finish what you are eating before leaving your seat.

Know that you should ask to eat your dessert.

Know how to use good manners during lunchtime, particularly when receiving food from the school kitchen and talking to midday supervisors.

Completing work in books

Know how to set out work in books according to the Teaching and Learning Policy.

Know that each piece of work needs a date and title.

Know that you must use 'one square, one digit' when writing in maths books.

Know how to underline titles.

Know how to correct mistakes by drawing a straight line through your work.
